

Campaign Life Coalition presents:

Whitby Pro-Life Forum 2014

Focusing on Life and Family topics including:

- Faith and Politics
- RU-486: the kill-pill threatens Canada
- Ontario's sex-ed coming to a school near you

Date: Saturday, February 22, 2014

Place: St. Leo the Great Catholic Church (Parish Hall)
130 Watford St., Brooklin

Time: 9:30am (registration)-4:00pm

Registration: Adults: $10 under 13 are free

Includes lunch and coffee breaks

clc@campaignlifecoalition.com/ 1(800) 730-5358

Campaign Life
Coalition

www.campaignlifecoalition.com

Featuring Canada's National Pro-Life Leaders

National President: Jim Hughes

Under his leadership many pro-life, pro-family organizations and events have taken root in Canada, including the Parliamentary Pro-life Caucus, a variety of activist organizations and most significantly the National March for Life.

Youth Coordinator: Alissa Golob

Alissa has traveled across the country activating young people. She has been featured on programs such as GlobalTV, CBC, MTV and Sun News.

Alissa will be discussing CLC's current project the Defund Abortion Campaign calling provincial governments to end the funding of abortions.

: Jack Fonseca

Jack Fonseca handles wide variety of tasks from elections to media interviews to helping organize pro-life events. He is also assigned to projects with the CLC's Campaign Life Catholics division, which focuses on Catholic issues particularly education..

Local Activist: Maritza Sialer